

“Prior to meeting Dave I had worked with numerous pros and thought they helped me, however, no one has changed my game like Dave! His relaxed teaching style, sense of humor, and keen insight into my game has made the difficult process of swing change a pleasure. With Dave’s help and a lot of hard work, I have lowered my handicap from 21 to 11 in 2 years.”

“ I started playing golf at 51 years old and just finished my 6th season. I have worked with Dave since my 2nd season and have lowered my scores by 30 strokes. I have finally broken 100! Dave is knowledgeable and patient and has helped me with confidence on the course. He makes a complicated game simple. David is the best!!!”

Private Golf Lessons

Meet the Pro

Dave graduated from Mississippi State University's Professional Golf Management program in 1992. After attaining PGA membership in 1994, Dave has spent the last 20 years focusing on teaching and learning the game of golf. He served as head of instruction from 2001 through 2005 at Stone Meadow Driving Range in Lexington, MA. He has been the lead instructor at The Ponds at Battle Creek since 2006. Dave instructs all levels of golfers and has taught more than 16,000 private golf lessons.

Message From The Pro

I started playing golf when I was 14 and stubbornly tried to learn it my way with no help. After four years of frustration I finally took a golf lesson and found that my swing had serious flaws. Years later, as an instructor, I see my students struggling with the same issues I had at 14. The good news for all of us is that bad swing habits can be reversed in a relatively short time.

Through "muscle-memory" training, better course-management skills and improved short-game technique I help each student achieve his/her goals while taking into consideration such factors as age, physical condition, and time restraints.

Playing Lessons

Course management skills are not easily diagnosed on the practice range. A playing lesson allows the golf pro to better understand the strengths and weaknesses of each student's game.

Student Testimonials

"Dave evaluated my golf swing then continually reinforced the step-by-step fundamentals of a good golf swing. While I'll never shoot like a pro, faithfully following his steps has led to consistent shots with a more predictable and satisfying outcome. The short game and putting lessons have proven to be the most useful for reducing my score and reducing my frustration with golf. Thanks Dave!"
Michael Green, Project Manager

"I took my first lesson with Dave in 2015 and found him easy to work with to improve my game. He accurately assessed which aspects would most improve my game without overwhelming me with too many changes. After numerous lessons with Dave I strike the ball more consistently, lowered my handicap, added distance and most importantly my enjoyment for the game has greatly increased. I would highly recommend Dave to anyone looking to improve their golf game."
Bryan Godtland, Retired

"Great, foundational technique should never be underestimated. From the grip to the driver Dave has given me a consistent and efficient swing on the course. I love his relaxed, calm, and direct approach. Besides working the miracle of bringing me from a beginner to a 20 handicapper in one year, Dave has inspired in me a love for golf that I never thought possible!"
